4. Legal basis and purpose of personal data processing

According to the EU's General Data Protection Regulation, the legal basis for processing personal data is the person's voluntary consent and the controller's legitimate interest based on the customer relationship. The purpose of processing personal data is managing and maintaining customer relations, customer letters and announcements, and marketing to own customers.

5. Data content of the register

The information to be recorded in the register is:

- Name
- Email address
- Telephone number

6. Regular sources of information

The information to be recorded in the register is obtained from the customer himself during registration in connection or by e-mail or telephone, when the customer himself shares his information.

7. Regular transfers of data and transfer of data within the EU or EEA outside

Information is not regularly disclosed to other parties. Information can be published to the extent agreed with the customer. Information is not transferred outside the EU or EEA.

8. Principles of registry protection

Care is taken when processing the register and the information processed with the help of information systems is properly protected. When registry data is stored on Internet servers, the physical and digital data security of their hardware is taken care of accordingly. The registrar ensures that stored data as well as server access rights and other data critical to the security of personal data are handled confidentially and only by those employees whose job description it is.

9. Right of inspection and right to demand correction of information

Every person in the register has the right to check their information stored in the register and demand the correction of any incorrect information or the completion of incomplete information. If a person wants to check the information stored about him or demand correction, the request must be sent in writing to the controller. If necessary, the registrar can ask the requester to prove his identity. The controller responds to the customer within the time stipulated in the EU data protection regulation.

10. Other rights related to the processing of personal data

A person in the register has the right to request the removal of personal data about him from the register ("the right to be forgotten"). Those registered also have other rights according to the EU's General Data Protection Regulation, such as limiting the processing of personal data in certain situations. Requests must be sent in writing to the controller. If necessary, the registrar can ask the requester to prove his identity. The controller responds to the customer within the time stipulated in the EU data protection regulation.
